

THE EAST TENNESSEE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

A HOME FOR OUR PAST

The Museum of East Tennessee History at 25

September 15, 2018 through March 31, 2019

Rogers-Claussen Feature Gallery

presented by

“Let us hasten to redeem time that is lost.”

Dr. J.G.M. Ramsey’s plea to save Tennessee’s past continues to reverberate in the galleries of the East Tennessee Historical Society’s museum, a permanent home for our region’s cherished stories, traditions, and artifacts.

This year marks the 25th Anniversary of the Museum of East Tennessee History, and we invite you to celebrate the milestone by visiting A Home for Our Past, a new feature exhibition showcasing the museum and its collection.

—Dr. J.G.M. Ramsey to those in attendance at the East Tennessee Historical Society’s first annual meeting, May 5, 1834

The East Tennesseans
1993

www.eastTNhistory.org/25years

THE EAST TENNESSEE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MUSEUM of EAST TENNESSEE HISTORY

LOCATION 601 South Gay Street, Downtown Knoxville

HOURS M-F 9-4 | SAT 10-4 | SUN 1-5

ADMISSION $5 Adults, $4 Seniors, FREE 16 & under
FREE on Sundays | Always FREE for ETHS Members

Also on view in the Rogers-Claussen Feature Gallery:
East Tennessee artifacts from the collection of the Tennessee State Museum in celebration of its new museum, opening October 4, 2018, in Nashville

Exhibition developed in partnership with

